Welcome!

The fireworks bursting in the sky serve as a reminder of our independence as a nation. We gaze upon them with wonder as we "ooh and awe." This morning though, let us look to the cross as a reminder of our dependance on Christ. May we gaze upon his face with wonder as we "ooh and awe" a God who's love burns for us brighter than any fireworks. Let us praise Him as we await his ultimate finale.

Beth Moore "A Heart Like His" Ladies Bible Study every Thursday night at 7 p.m. at the home of Liz Miller - 15 Club Terrace. Please bring $15.00 with you for a workbook.

"It's just not fair!" If I had a dollar for every time I heard that or just a nickel for every time I said it, I'd be a millionaire either way. Somewhere we decided that life should be fair, that everyone should receive the exact same thing. It's not that way, but we fight for it nonetheless. Now more than ever our society screams for justice. Think about it. There are literally thousands of organizations demanding that for the "equal rights" of other individuals (or species). Whether they demand equal treatment of prisoner's, whales, or those identified by a certain life-style, people are demanding that everyone and everything should receive equal treatment. Look at the frivolous lawsuits . . . Greed may cause the plaintiff to demand millions for a hot cup of coffee that was spilled in their lap, but it is the jury seeking justice that awards the "victim" with a large sum of money. But your mother was right . . . life is not fair, at least not in the sense that everyone will have the exact same opportunities and receive the same treatment as everyone else. Even the Bible does not proclaim that life would be fair. To the contrary! We all have different talents, abilities, and opportunities. Even Jesus did not treat everyone the same. Fair, yes. Equal . . . no. This morning we are going to dig down and find out what Justice is, and how God offers it to all of us.

We had an awesome time at Camp Blue Haven. We had two young men that were baptized (Alex Garcia & David Ware) this week. Be sure to hug their neck and congratulate them. The week was a very spiritual week and full of many activities. If you have a facebook check out all of the pictures. This summer has been absolutely awesome. We are winding down though. We have one more major trip coming up for today. We are heading to Amarillo for our Middle School Mission Trip today at 2 PM. Please be in prayer for us that we can do a good job and come home safely. We will be doing work for the High Plains Children's Home and also the High Plains Food Bank. If you have any questions about the MSMT then ask Ben. He is the man in charge for this trip. He has put in many hours and has done a great job preparing for this week. Also Ben has been an incredible Intern this summer whose last day is going to be on August 8th. We will be having a going away party for him and you are all invited. Just in case you would like to know Ben is a Junior this year at Oklahoma Christian University. He majors in Bible and Biblical Languages. We will be having a back to school party on August 21st at the Mim's lake house. Don't forget about our Summer Servants that are coming up. Have an awesome week and keep God in center of all things. Love you all. - Levi
