Welcome!

It's Texas, It's August, It's Hot. Sitting in the shade means the temperature drops to the low 100's, and a breeze feels more like a hair dryer. Its so unbearable that you just want to stay inside. Jeremiah felt that same burning heat, but it came from the inside. In 20:9 he contemplates never speaking of God, but then concludes by saying that it would be a fire in his bones, and he would have to let it out. May the thought of keeping God in be unbearable for us. Let Him out!

Beth Moore "A Heart Like His" Ladies Bible Study every Thursday night at 7 p.m. at the home of Liz Miller - 15 Club Terrace. Please bring $15.00 with you for a workbook.

Adult Teachers Needed!

Many of us have had the opportunity to learn from some great teachers, and now we need to start sharing The Message with others. We can help supply direction and curriculum, you just supply the willingness! If there is any way you can humbly step up and teach a class, please see Doug Crum or talk to one of the elders. "Go and make disciples . . ."

Come listen to our Guest speaker this Sunday Night, August 22nd.

Please welcome Justin Cardwell as shares a message from the Word with us. Justin is currently enrolled at the Sunset International Bible Institute and is serving as the Youth Minister at the Sunset Church of Christ.

DOUGLAS CRUM

I love the story about the guy who waited patiently in line to meet the preacher one Sunday after the sermon. "Preacher," this eager, sincere Christian said, "I have only one thing to tell you. My answer is yes. Now, what's the question?"

The preacher looked at him, confused, and, smiling awkwardly, fell back upon the his safety net: "God bless you." The preacher politely brushed the man off and turned to greet the next person.

The next week, the same man waited in line and repeated the words. "Preacher, my answer is yes. Now, what's the question?"

The preacher pondered this enigma. Wanting to get to the bottom of it, he invited the young man to lunch. Over the meal, the young man blurted out again: "Preacher, my answer is yes. Now, what's the question?" Finally, overcome with curiosity, the preacher asked, "What are you talking about?"

The young man smiled and, with passion, began. "I was hooked on everything bad, about to lose my family, sliding down a slippery slope toward destruction. Then Jesus intervened." Tears welled up in his eyes. "Because of what Jesus did for me, my answer is yes! I'll do whatever you need. If you want me to rock babies, I'll rock babies. If you want meet to greet, I'll greet. If you want me to mow the church lawn, I'll be here at 6am every Saturday. My answer to you will always be yes. Now, what's the question?" When it comes to church, what is your answer? Is it, I'll pray about it, while you look for an escape, or is it . . . Yes?

School starts tomorrow!!! Holy Cow this summer when by fast. Now its time for homework and football (and volleyball). We've still got a lot of new stuff planned for you all. This is going to be a great fall. Please be praying for your school and the great things that God is doing in all of our lives. Please let us know when your School events will be so we can come and watch.

There is a parent/student meeting TODAY at 5PM in the Warehouse. Anyone who wants to be a part of the youth group in any way please come. Please bring any question or ideas you have. We will be discussing Wednesday night feeds, class topics, and some new ideas that I have. Please bring your personal calendars and a pen. If you would like to sign up for feeds and for events please come prepared to do that.

This Wednesday is Last Wednesday. Bring a friend. Bring your bibles. Bring a some good times. We are gonna have fun and we will have a good time of bible study. Sunday is RAK. Again bring a friend. And bring a desire to serve. God calls us to serve Him and to serve others so we are going to do just that by RAKing some people in need. Let God shine in your life as we serve Him this Sunday but also as you live your life.

Don't forget about the Rangers game this Saturday if you are signed up. This is going to be fun and we get to hear a Mercy Me concert. Ask Wes Bishop for any details and we will see you there. Go Rangers! Good luck in School and we will see you on the field and courts. Take care of business and let God be the center of your life.
